

PRISON SENTENCE FOR TWO WOMEN

Mrs. Lizzie Finney and Miss Florence Turpin Get Five and Three Years Respectively

The sentence of five years in state prison meted out to Mrs. Lizzie Finney, and three years to Miss Florence Turpin, by a jury Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the Madison circuit court came after considerable direct testimony upon the part of Mrs. Sarah Finney, mother-in-law of Mrs. Lizzie Finney.

The verdict which was agreed upon after some time in deliberating upon the part of the jury, seemed a surprise to the defendants. Mrs. Lizzie Finney who admitted she had been given virtually given more than $15,000 by the elder Mrs. Finney, after the latter had disposed of a farm, claimed she was saving the money for the benefit of her children. On cross examination, she stated she had $5,000 in a "safe place," in Akron, her present home, but could not give the address of the person who is said to have it in trust. She admitted having spent considerable owing to the high cost of living.

Mrs. Finney, chief witness for the commonwealth, reiterated her former story to the effect that she had been coerced into disposing of her farm and dividing the money with her daughter-in-law, in order to evade a sensational court procedure which was threatened against her and Mrs. Lizzie Finney, which, the latter declared, might terminate in both being sent to prison.

A notice of appeal and motion for new trial was given by the attorneys for the defendants.

Pending decision as to bond or new trial, the women were committed to jail.

Here's Where Big Ones Will Get The Returns

(By Associated Press)

Chicago, Nov. 1.—This is where the major presidential candidates will get the returns of election night: Gov. Cox, the democratic nominee, at Dayton, O., his home town; Senator Harding, the republican candidate, at the "front porch" in Marion, O.

Aaron S. Watkins, the Prohibition bearer, at his home in Cincinnati, O.

Three out of the seven in Ohio, the rest are scattered.

Eugene V. Debs, the Socialist candidate, at the federal prison in Atlanta, Ga.

Parley P. Christensen, the nominee of the Farmer-Labor party, at his home in Salt Lake City, Utah.

There probably won't be any returns Tuesday night for two other presidential nominees whose names have been prominent on middle western ballots. These are Robert C. Macauley, of Philadelphia, the single tax candidate, and Wm. W. Cox, of Missouri, who heads the Socialist-Labor ticket.

Returns on the minor candidates are generally several days coming in.

Debs will get the returns thru the national socialist headquarters in Chicago. It has arranged to telegraph him. If the party polls a heavy vote it reports it may make special announcement to him on November 5, which marks Debs' 65th birthday.

Harding Is Hopeful

Rain tonight; colder in west and central portions; Tuesday fair and colder.

CLOSING ADDRESSES IN LOCAL CAMPAIGN

The Democratic campaign was closed in Madison county Monday afternoon by addresses by ex-President W. G. Frost, of Berea, and Judge W. R. Shackelford. An immense crowd gathered in the lower court room before the hour for speaking, and listened with enthusiasm to every word. Both addresses were masterful. Hon. W. B. Smith, the nestor of Democracy, said a few words, before the other speakers arrived.

On Saturday night, Col. R. C. Oldham came over from Winchester and spoke before a big audience in his old home town. He made a brilliant and unanswerable argument for Democracy.

The final speech for the Republicans was made Saturday afternoon by Hon. William Wallace, formerly of Richmond, who is now practicing law in Frankfort. Mr. Wallace is a very popular local young man, and made an address which appeared to please the Republicans who heard him.

It is probable that there has been more speaking in the recent campaign than in many years in Madison county. Big crowds have been the rule everywhere and a record sized vote is expected Tuesday.

COX WINDS UP TODAY

(By Associated Press)

Dayton, O., Nov. 1.—Gov. Cox left for Toledo for his final campaign address tonight, and will return here tomorrow and spend the day at his farm and will await the elections returns in his newspaper office tomorrow night, which will be received by the same telegraph set used to notify Grover Cleveland of his nomination. He said he was convinced the sentiment of the country favored the League of Nations.

IS HARDING TWO-FACED? READ AND ANSWER YOURSELF. WHAT HE SAID OF COL. ROOSEVELT

WHEN HARDING NEEDS THE VOTE There was a distinct conviction that the flag had lost its bravest defender when Theodore Roosevelt passed from life to the eternal flaming spirit of American patriotism was gone.

The popular impression had him of ten dominating and insistent, but there were few American presidents who sought advice more widely or were more ready to accept.

I say it after all deliberation and free from all inclinations which characterize hero worship, I believe Col. Roosevelt to have been the most courageous American of all times. He not only believed, he proclaimed and acted. He was not only American in his own heart and soul, but he believed every man who wore the habiliments should be an American in every heart beat and commit himself to unflinching Americanism.

Col. Roosevelt's extraordinary manhood, his appealing vigorous fearless American manhood is an inseparable thing from his public career. He revealed it as the soldier in the world's first war for humanity.

Perhaps his greatest work apart from his appealing Americanism and yet a vital part of it, was his crusade for a new order of things, a new conscience in the Republic.

In his virile American manhood, he was the surpassing and inspiring example, in the fullness of mental and physical and moral vigor, he was the great patriotic sentinel pacing the parapet of the Republic, alert to danger and from enemies, and in love with duty and service and always unflinching.

Here was a great and courageous American, he called to the slumbering spirit of the Republic and made it American in thought as well as name.

It is little to say that the Republic is bigger and better and mightily advanced by his part in its glorious history, more American for his call to patriotism and more secure for his warning of peril. It is more to say that he inspired those who followed to nobler manhood and higher ideals.

If he had lived he would have been our Republican nominee by acclamation.

(Quotations from Senator Harding's statement on anniversary of the death of Roosevelt's birth, October 27, 1920.)

POLITICS BREAKS UP TEACHERS' MEETING

(By Associated Press)

The regular meeting of the Madison County Teachers' Association in the court house Saturday was cut short by a political address by Hon. William Wallace for the Republicans. There were no arrangements made for the next meeting of teachers owing to the abrupt termination of the session. While the court room was filled with instructors, many of whom had come for miles, there was disappointment upon the part of the politicians, if they expected to hold this crowd, for within three minutes after the announcement had been made that the room had to be given over to the campaign crowd, Superintendent B. F. Edwards suggested that the matters in the interest of education be passed and politics admitted, and there was a clearing of the room, less than half a dozen of those in attendance remaining to hear the orator of the day. There was much unfavorable comment by the teachers regarding the closing of the meeting in the midst of the teachers' program. The regular procedure had been followed in securing the room for the teachers where they have been holding their monthly meetings regularly. However, politics took precedence over education, and the political meeting was allowed to go on.

Jury Re-instructed, Soon Reaches Verdict

(By Associated Press)

The jury in the case of Herndon vs. Hibberd, as a result of a lumber deal misunderstanding, which occupied the attention of circuit court Friday afternoon, reported in the evening before the adjournment of the court that they were unable to reach a verdict. The court re-instructed them and sent them back for deliberations. They soon reached a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $400.

JUDGE SHACKELFORD OFF TO NICHOLASVILLE

(By Associated Press)

After closing the October term of the Madison circuit court, Judge W. R. Shackelford left Monday for Nicholasville, where he will preside for a period of two weeks, after which he will go to Stanton, Powell county, where he will spend a fortnight during the term there. It is said a big list of cases awaits him at both places, but the manner in which he disposed of cases in the local court, this will not cause him any worry.

WHEN ROOSEVELT NEEDED VOTES

In seeking a prototype for Col. Roosevelt among American public men in the country one finds the closest resemblance to Aaron Burr. The same towering ambitions, the same overbearing disposition and ungovernable temper, same ruthlessness and disregard of ties of friendship, gratitude and reverence, the same tendency to bully, to browbeat, and finally the same type of egotism and greed for power and the same mental tendency generally.

He is not a constructive or executive mind. Whatever he thinks will bring good to the electors he happens to be before is good enough for the occasion. He has no sense of duty and blushing denies that he ever made the statement which seems to have been untrue.

Still Mr. Roosevelt has been wonderfully successful in fooling most of the people all the time and it is no reason why he cannot keep on doing so.

The man is utterly without conscience and regard for truth and the greatest faker of all time.

Declaring for the purification of politics he finances a deliberate attempt to steal the convention. He had closed his mind to all consideration of pledge, faith or personal friendship, established precedence, customs and traditions of party fealty and loyalty.

We would like the name of a single magazine in the land that is opposing Col. Roosevelt which is not under trust influence and the same condition applies to nearly all the newspapers of established precedence and traditions of party fealty and loyalty.

Benedict Arnold is more like Roosevelt, for he won his country's plaudits and turned traitor when he might have joined the victor.

If he is not friendly to the trusts he is certainly guilty of having secured some large campaign contributions under false pretenses. The Colonel appears to see a wide distinction between stealing delegates and stealing elections, but as yet he has not produced any satisfactory chart to make the thing plain to the run of the people.

The hard karl business is not confined to the Orient. Over Col. Roosevelt and a number of lesser lights have been practicing political hard karl for some time.

LAST APPEAL TO WOMEN OF MADISON

(By Associated Press)

County Chairman Mrs. C. W. Cobb has received the following telegram from State Chairman Mrs. S. M. Wilson, which explains itself: Mrs. C. W. Cobb, Richmond, Ky.

Victory for the democratic ticket in Kentucky now seems certain if the local organizers do not relax their splendid efforts but will strain every nerve to make the victory overwhelming and unmistakable in its significance. Republican leaders are concentrating their efforts on the election of Ernst for United States Senator. They are sending out thousands of ballots to show how to scratch Beckham. Warn all democrats about this. It is essential that we have a democratic Senate and that Beckham be re-elected.

SWOPE A "RUNNER"

(Stanford Interior Journal)

Congressman King Swope is a runner. He demonstrated that conclusively at Kings Mountain Tuesday night. The Congressman was billed for a speech at that place and so was Private George T. Davis. It is possible that Mr. Swope's appointment was made first as he was given the right to speak first. Mr. Davis who spoke in the interest of the democratic ticket, asked Mr. Swope for a division of time, and sat throughout the Congressman's address and gave him perfect attention, thinking, of course, that Swope would extend him the same courtesy. But nay, the doughty "warrior" who wore a captain's uniform in this country during the great world war, not only declined to hear Mr. Davis, but at the conclusion of his speech, gathered up his papers and hurriedly left the room, asking as he departed that all of his friends come down to the entrance of the school building and shake hands with him. Amid hoots and jeers, Swope left Kings Mountain in a hurry, thereby showing that he is a runner in at least one sense of the word. It was perhaps well that he did run, for never have the people of Kings Mountain listened to a more masterly address than the one delivered by Private Davis. His denunciation of Swope, was scathing in the extreme, and the Congressman, had he but stayed would never have forgotten it. To the credit of a number of republicans, be it said, that they heartily disapproved of Swope's action. One of them took the floor and called on all present to remain and give the democratic speaker the same attention as was given the republican speaker.

FORMER MOUNTAIN MEN NOW FOR COX

Rockcastle Republicans Write Strong Letters Telling Why They Will Vote For Him

Big papers everywhere are publishing statements from prominent men, life-long Republicans, who say they are going to vote for Cox and Roosevelt this time. But the Somerset Journal just printed three letters from former farmers of Rockcastle county, who live as strong reasons as any of the more prominent men in the nation. All three are known in Madison county and several have relatives here. What they say cannot be answered by any Republican argument. Their letters are as follows:

To the Journal: I am a nephew of U. G. Baker and a grandson of John Wes. Baker, of Mt. Vernon. I was born and raised a Republican, but it has been forced upon me that the Democratic party is more of a friend of labor, and for that reason I shall vote for Governor Cox. The farmer or laboring man who

Judge's Sons Adopt "Moonshine" Methods

San Rafael, Cal.—Little pitchers have big ears, as is well known. And Justice of the Peace H. de la Montanya knows that his sons, Lloyd and Herbert, 14 and 12 years old, are such good listeners that they almost learned enough the other night to kill them.

The judge and his wife and sons were at the home of a neighbor not long ago and the neighbor explained all about distilling whisky. Several nights later the judge and his wife returned from a picture show to discover a strange odor coming from their kitchen.

They found their sons lying semi-conscious on the floor and a sickening odor filling the room. On the stove was a tea kettle with a rubber hose attached. In the kettle was a concoction of corn and molasses. The boys were trying to make "moonshine."

Dr. R. G. Duffley, who attended the lads, said they would soon recover.

NEW FLU SCOURGE IS FOUND

Children of Vienna Are Left Stupefied and Emaciated After Epidemic.

Washington.—A new form of encephalitis lethargica, caused by the germ of influenza and attacking the brain of its victim, is exacting almost unhindered toll among the children of Vienna, according to reports from the Red Cross missions at Vienna to national headquarters here. The disease, which has thus far defied the power of medical science, leaves its victims stupefied and terribly emaciated. One child aged seven years, according to the Red Cross reports, weighed only 20 pounds when it died a victim of the disease.

Fighting against the almost insurmountable obstacle of lack of medicine, supplies and food, American Red Cross physicians have sought to stop the spread of the disease. Hospitals are overcrowded, for a long period of convalescence is required for those who recover.

The extraordinarily cold weather of the Austrian winter contributed largely to the prevalence of the epidemic among children. Without food and clothing, and in a generally weakened physical condition, they quickly succumb to the disease.

WAILING PLACE OF JEWS

The famous "wailing place of the Jews" in Jerusalem is here seen under strange conditions. This British soldier was the only visitor to the historic spot.

Red-Blooded Men and Women Are Seldom Sick

Watch Your Blood Condition

If You Look Pale, Feel Gloomy and Run-down, Take Pepto-Mangan and Build Up

You see men and women who are never sick. They work hard, look robust, eat heartily and enjoy life. They have plenty of rich, red blood. That is why they are never ill.

People who try to get along with weak, impoverished blood always have a struggle. They go from one sickness to another. Children the same way.

If you keep your blood rich and red you'll enjoy full vigor. Disease has little chance to develop in healthy blood. As soon as you feel run-down take Pepto-Mangan for awhile. It will feed your blood with the ingredients needed to create a good supply of red corpuscles.

Pepto-Mangan is sold in both liquid and tablet form. Take either kind you prefer. They are alike in medicinal value. But be sure you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan. "Gude's". The full name "Gude's Pepto-Mangan," should be on the package. adv the munitions manufacturers, who have backed Mr. Harding with their money. It will mean the building of a bigger navy and this will repay the steel trust which helped to make possible republican success, it will mean revision of the Federal Reserve system so that big business, instead of the people, will control the money in the country. And thus big business which has poured its money into the Republican campaign, will receive its reward. It will mean a separate peace with Germany and the German American vote will be rewarded by America's desertion of her allies.

With this prospect, it is not surprising that the independent vote of the country is moving as a rising tide toward the Democratic nominee.

The Lancaster Record says that 4,000 people heard Dr. E. L. Powell speak for Cox and the League of Nations there, Thursday night. Never in the history of the oldest inhabitant has such keen interest been aroused in any political campaign as in the present one. A record vote is presaged, and this makes the Democrats feel good. When the vote comes out the Democratic ticket always wins in Kentucky. Just a few hours longer and the tale will be told.

GIRL WINS OUT BY HAPPY OPTIMISM

Zasu Pitts, who became through her work in "Poor Relations," "The Other Half," and "Better Times," is back again.

Her latest production is a Robertson-Cole Superior picture which was made at the Brentwood Studios. It is "Seeing It Through," which was directed by Claude H. Mitchell, who also is the author.

In "Seeing It Through," Miss Pitts plays the part of a girl who lives in California, in the village of Arden, and who meets many misfortunes but manages to "see it through," by an unflinching ability to look always on the bright side and keep smiling. Her love affair with a young man who owns a large estate near her home is the force which assures a happy ending.

SWIFT PRODUCE REVIEW

Fresh eggs are in good demand. A very large percentage of current receipts, however, are not strictly fresh and do not command top prices. Storage eggs are being withdrawn from warehouses for current use to make up the deficiency in current production. Stocks are much lighter than last year and the present outlook is they will all be needed to supply export and domestic requirements, as an early, large supply of fresh eggs is not expected.

Poultry receipts have been generally lighter during the week. High prices have been paid in the country and large consuming centers. The butter market has shown some improvement during the week. The production is greater than at this time a year ago, but consumption is holding up well, and unless there are unusually heavy receipts of imported butter, a continued healthy butter market is expected.

The Independent Vote. The most interesting and significant feature of the last week of the presidential campaign is the swing of the independent vote toward the League of Nations. If any one had doubted that the American people were in favor of a League of Nations, a would have that doubt dispelled as he saw hundreds of leading Republicans in America headed by a man like Hamilton Holt, editor of the Independent, announce their determination to turn from their party to support Cox and Roosevelt because they saw no possible hope for the League of Nations in the hands of a party which had proved its enmity

BUTTER FAT is worth a lot of money today. To save every particle of it is the part of wise business economy. The Primrose Cream Separator is the standby of the wise dairyman.

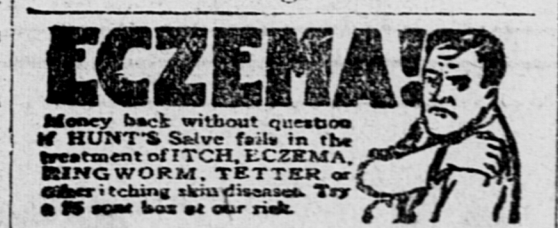

The more you see of the Primrose separator and the longer you use it, the better you will like it. It has but one purpose—to separate cream from milk. It saves all the cream. The escape of a little cream here and there may not strike you as such a serious matter, but bunch those losses over a period of time and you will be astonished at the amount. That is where the Primrose separator protects your pocket-book.

The Primrose is the only cream separator that forces oil through every bearing, not just to them. This and other special and exclusive features about the machine we should like to show you. Call and let us show you just what this means to you as a money-saver. If not convenient to call, phone us, and we will call on you and bring a machine with us.

SAMUEL SMILEY'S SAYINGS

Answers Some Questions About Senatorial Syndicate Candidate

Question—What does Senator Harding mean by America first?
Answer—He is probably speaking for the non-leaguers—American first, Russia second, Turkey third, and Mexico fourth.

Q—Can I explain his stand on the League of Nations?

A—What stand do you mean—Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 or 9?

Q—Why did he quit his proposed Western trip?

A—I don't know unless it was non-support.

Q—Do I understand all of his speeches?

A—Perfectly—but I don't know what they mean.

Q—What do I think of his statement to women that "we hear too much talk about independence in politics?"

A—He simply changed an old record and made it "Her Master's voice."

Q—Why are his speeches all so dull and pointless?

A—Because he never tries to use epigrams, but confines himself to outjaggers.

Q—Why does his speeches get mixed up?

A—He has too many controls.

Q—Who wrote the song that goes "We need another Lincoln to do the Nation's thinking?"

And, Mr. Harding, we've selected you?"

A—A comedian.

Q—Do I think Senator Harding looks like Lincoln?

A—As a statesman, he looks to me more like "September Morn."

Q—Why is he so indignant about the United States preserving order in Haiti?

A—We didn't intervene in Haiti until 1915, and he's just found out about it.

Q—What will he say about the High Court of International Justice just organized by the League of Nations, with Elihu Root as one of the organizers?

A—Sh-h-h! His heart is still in the grave there with the Hague Tribunal.

Q—Does the chairman of the republican national committee sign his name Hays or Hayes?

A—For this campaign he ought to spell it Haze.

Q—How can I find out who is running on the ticket with Harding for vice president?

A—Consult the Bureau of Lost Persons.

BIG GUNS ATTEND TEACHERS' MEETING

Advocate Graded Schools and Co-Operation—What Kentucky Most At Present

The Teachers' Association of Madison county met in regular session at 1:30 o'clock Saturday, with County Superintendent Edwards presiding. Miss Hope Hubbard, of Kingston, led the singing, and Prof. M. T. Freeman, of Berea, led in prayer.

About 50 teachers were in attendance when the association was called to order. Prof. J. W. Ireland, of Frankfort; McHenry Rhoades, of Lexington; and J. Virgil Chapman, of Frankfort, were present.

Prof. Elder, leader of the meeting, introduced Prof. Ireland, the first speaker. Mr. Ireland laid stress upon the fact that all school teachers should attend these meetings, because of the great obligation they owe to the schools of Kentucky.

Mr. Ireland then sang with the teachers, "Our Boy Will Shine Tonight."

"There are three classes of individuals," he said, "that Christ met whom we have with us today—those who are eager to learn, those who are indifferent to all the opportunities and possibilities in life, and those who do not want to come to school at all (the antagonistic)."

Mr. Elder next introduced Prof. McHenry Rhoades, of the Education Department of the University of Kentucky, who spoke briefly on "The Relation of the High School to the Common School of This State." He spoke of the idea of work being done in a way which will not only be profitable but pleasurable. "Teachers are employed to give the community information of value and skill in the use of this information. Teachers must be trained to do what society demands. Theory must be accomplished by a vast amount of practice," etc.

Prof. J. Virgil Chapman, state rural school inspector, spoke along the line of rural school problems. Prof. Chapman said in part: "The rural problem is the most serious domestic problem that we have in this country. We have it in a very important and peculiar way in Kentucky. In the first place, the constant nation-wide drift of our people to the cities makes the production of the country serious. The best solution for this problem is to establish a real Twentieth century country school out in the country. You, as teachers, must create a sentiment out there in favor of a larger school. More consolidated schools have been built, more local taxes voted in Kentucky for school purposes during the past two years than ever before in any ten-year period previous."

FAIL TO SUSTAIN CHARGES; CASE ENDS

When the evidence in the case of Kirby, administrator, against Berea College, etc., for $20,000 had been submitted to the jury, the latter asked for a preliminary instruction. At this juncture, attorneys for the defense, asked that the proceedings be dismissed, since there was no evidence to sustain any of the numerous charges made in the lengthy complaint. The action was sustained by Judge W. R. Shackelford and the case, which was destined to require considerable time was at an end. The charges represented alleged gross neglect upon the part of the attaches of the hospital department of the college. One of the allegations was to the effect that Miss Nettie Kirby, young woman student at the college, was ill treated during a sick period, and this is said to have contributed largely to her death. The failure to sustain any of the many charges made came as a surprise. There had been a large array of witnesses summoned by the college officials.

MOYNAHAN AND MRS. STOFFER WIN

Cash Prizes For Best Reasons Why United States Should Enter League of Nations

Eugene Moynahan, who fought bravely in the war, was awarded first prize in the contest inaugurated by Campaign Chairman John C. Chenault, for the best reasons why the United States should enter the League of Nations. Mrs. J. B. Stouffer won second prize. The judges in the contest were Revs. R. L. Telford and Homer W. Carpenter. The prize winning papers were as follows:

Mr. Moynahan's Reasons

Hon. John C. Chenault: You and your committee will find herewith my three reasons why we should as a nation become a member of the League of Nations (and at once) recently agreed to when the disturbance that shook the entire world had ceased for a time, that men might think.

1. In the year of 1918, during the month of July, I wrote a letter to the dear mothers of America in regard to their sons whom they had sent abroad, and for what if not to protect them from any immediate danger, but they sent them to prevent future aggression by a monarch nation, with a league of honorable and peaceful nations, which your sons fought, bled and, nay, some of them died, for they will not have died in vain.

2. With a League of Nations you will reduce the appropriations for armaments that will be required by an independent nation 90 per cent, and one of those loved ones whose body now rests in Flanders fields, but whose soul is in Heaven is worth more than all the armaments that have been appropriated in the last fifty years.

3. The sentiment of the men of the American forces in Europe was that they were fighting for a cause that was to crush militarism forever, and to make right the master of might, the soldiers of America did not suffer for America alone, but for all the nations who wished to make this a peaceful world; we fought with France, England, Belgium and Italy that we might have world peace, and if we whipped the greatest military menace together that the world has ever known, we should form and be a part of a League of Nations already in existence to perpetuate the cause for which we fought, and I believe I speak for those who paid the supreme price. Your respectfully,

EUGENE K. MOYNAHAN.

Mrs. Stouffer's Reasons

Three reasons why we should act at once with the present League of Nations. Because

1. The composite child of the minds of hundreds of the most discerning men on earth; humanity prompted, duty demanded, Golden Rule impelled and Christianity actuated it.

2. Progress exacts league's immediate adoption, making it "salt with savor."

3. Discarded, United States might become a twin to Lot's wife for longingly looking backward.

LEAGUE TO HAVE ATHLETIC PROGRAM

There will be a meeting of the members of the American Legion at the court house Wednesday night that promises to equal, in point of interest, the recent monthly meeting, which was a "hummer."

There will be an athletic and musical program out of the ordinary in many ways. These features are beginning to characterize the meetings, since interest has been manifested by many who have not heretofore been interested. There will be talks about the new home and other events of a social nature which will be a part of the winter meetings, and there will be things that will interest all members. Those who do not attend will miss something—real interesting.

THIS FEEBLE, AGED WOMAN

Tells How She Built Up Strength and Vitality

She says: "I am seventy-three years of age and suffered from a weak, run-down condition, and was so feeble I could hardly get around; my daughter induced me to try Vinol, and it gave me a good appetite, I sleep well, am stronger and healthier in every way, so I can get around and do all my house work."

The reason Vinol is so successful in such cases is because it contains the tissue building and medicinal elements of cods' livers, aided by the blood-making, strength-creating, properties of tonic iron, beef peptone and glycerophosphates.

If feeble, old people only realize the good Vinol will do for them, our druggists would not be able to supply the demand. It

AMERICA WILL NOT FAIL

Oh, glorious lads, in Flanders fields, You nobly fought, you bled, you died; America will not fail you now And cast her precious gift aside. She will not how to party strife, Nor fail to hear your silent call; Across the seas where poppies grow You gladly gave for her your all.

You died that others might no die In future years that are to come, That mothers' hearts might cease to ache About their boys, their darling sons. The world will always proudly keep The prize for which you bravely fought; The League of Nations—precious boon—Which you for all so dearly bought.

Sleep on, dear lads, be not disturbed America's love is great for you; She will not fail to do her part In the great peace plan made by you. The League of Nations is a fact And as the days pass swiftly on America soon will take her place Which you for her so nobly won.

Then with her sisters she will stand For the great cause for which you died, And war will cease in every land And peace forevermore abide. O noble dead! in Flanders fields! Shrine where the world will always bow, Sleep on until the Judgment Day— America will not fail you now! J. Calvin Hendricks.

BE AN AMERICAN

"What is war?" some one said; War is something all men dread. War is trouble which we borrow And to man means death and sorrow. Yet some men of narrow mind and sight

Are telling us today that is isn't right For every country to join as one And in the future all war shun; They tell us the world should go on as before

The weak falling at the stronger's door; But before we heed their unwise call Let's consider this question, one and all.

First put aside this political game, Be just an American or you won't see plain; Do you think it fair to our boys who died

To make the world a better place in which to abide, Now that the price has been paid And the cornerstone of world peace has been laid,

Shall we say this can't be so— Because we are strongest we'll crush our foe? Do you think it right that this great free land

Should reject the League and take this stand? Let your God and your conscience be your guide

While you this great question decide; Then, after carefully thinking this great question o'er, If you're still against the League, you belong on Russia's shore. H. P. (an ex-Sailor.)

TOBACCO MEN TO MEET TO ARRANGE CROP SALES

There will be a meeting of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Association of Kentucky, Indiana, Ohio, Virginia and West Virginia at Lexington on December 1, when the matter of disposing of the crop will be considered. This is expected to record the first selling of any great amount of the weed. Plans for the disposal of the weed will be suggested, and there will be a uniform manner in which all will be given an assurance of the best price obtainable. The organization continues to grow, a number of counties in eastern states asking admittance, and it is probable that the extent of the association will be greatly widened before the date of the next meeting.

NO CITY COURT SESSION

No new cases having developed, there was no session of the city court Friday night. There are a number of cases left over from last week which will probably be heard at the regular meetings, either Monday or Friday night.

Port Tampa Man Says Tanlac Has Put Him Back in the Very Pink of Condition

"I am satisfied Tanlac is a great medicine, for I have given it a fair trial and it has proved in my case it will do the work," declared Robert Greene, of Port Tampa, Florida.

"For ten months before I got hold of Tanlac I had been in an awful run-down condition. My nerves seemed to be on edge all the time and just kept me restless and upset. My appetite went back on me, my stomach was all out of order and several times I had acute attacks of indigestion, and my liver was sluggish.

"One of my friends recommend Tanlac to me about a month ago, and it has done everything I expected and even more, and today I call myself in the very pink of condition. I want to be eating all the time now, and everything my appetite calls for digest properly and without any bad effects at all. My nerves are good, and strong and I sleep sound all night long. My strength and energy have come back and I can put in full time at work now. Tanlac has put me in fine shape and I believe it will do the same for any man that gives it a fair trial."

Tanlac is sold in Richmond by Stockton and Son; in College Hill by Ginter Brothers; in Berea by Welch Department Stores. It

COURT DAY ON; SLOW HORSE SALE

With court day on and a large assemblage of horses and mules, owners are finding few sales, and lower prices. The consensus of opinion shortly before noon was that there would be a return to the farm of most of the animals owing to the low prices paid. There were practically no sales up till noon, with little better prospects in sight. The horses were more in evidence than usual, and a number of mules. Bidding was started upon a number of farm horses, and the animals were led away later by the disgruntled owner. The new streets were used for the sales for the first time and there was much satisfaction expressed at the condition of the thoroughfares by many who saw them for the first time.

Several Charges Are Filed Against One Man

Wright Hamilton, a young man residing in the eastern part of the city, was arrested Saturday night by police, while, it is claimed, he was intimidating passengers at the L. & N. depot, and as a result a number of charges were filed against him. One was for intoxication, another for carrying concealed weapons, one for resisting an officer, and Chief of Police Devore said there would probably be additional charges brought before the calling of the cases for a hearing Monday night in police court.

The fight between Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpentier for the heavyweight championship of the world, will be held in Havana.

Every Drop of Your Blood Should Be Absolutely Pure

Any slight disorder or impurities is a source of danger, as every vital organ of the body depends upon the blood supply to properly perform its functions.

Many painful and dangerous diseases are the direct result of a bad condition of the blood. Among the most serious are Rheumatism, with its torturing pain; Eczema, Tetter, Erysipelas and other disfiguring skin diseases; general debility, which makes the strongest men helpless, and many other diseases are the direct result of impure blood.

You can in a large measure avoid liability to disease by the use of S. S. S., the wonderful blood remedy that has been in constant use for more than fifty years. S. S. S. cleanses the blood thoroughly. It is sold by druggists everywhere.
